FROM THE HEADTEACHER - CHUI

Welcome to this issue of our monthly newsletter. Thank you for participating in our interactive session on CBC that was held on Saturday, 11th September, 2021. A special thank you to our facilitators Dr. Mujahid and Dr. Wagioko who enlightened us. Let us keep working together to grow our learners and make CBC the success that we know it is.

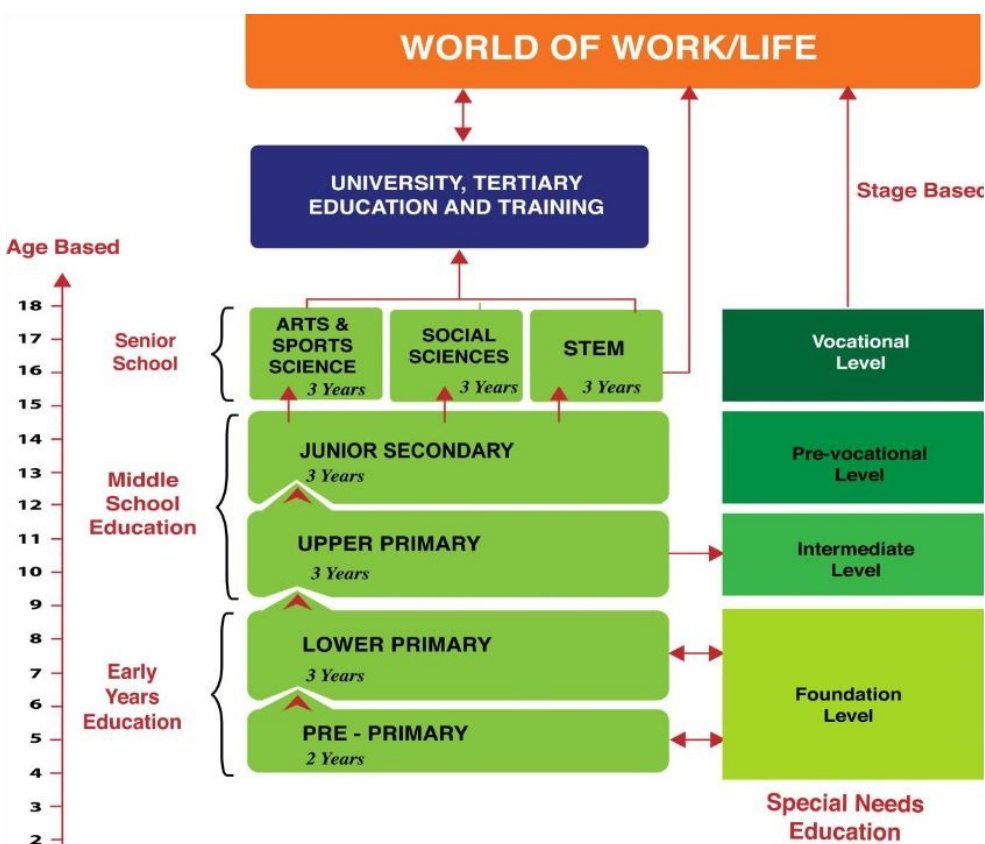

- Mr. Elvan Gichana, Chui Campus Headteacher

CBC IN A NUTSHELL....

CBC?

The Competence based Curriculum is a process that gives learners an opportunity to be actively involved in learning.

The 4 C's of CBC

Communication & Collaboration

We work together to speak and realize shared goals

Critical Thinking & Problem Solving

We observe, evaluate and reason to find solutions

Citizenship

We value our community and act with respect for all

Creativity & Imagination

We are free to think differently, to create new and valuable things

Differences between 8.4.4 and CBC

From 844

To CBC

- Focuses on teaching
- Focuses on memorization of content
- Focuses on academic achievement
- Focuses on examination and results
- Focuses on Competition
- Not all learners transited to the next level
- Less emphasis on talent and career progression
- Less parental engagement in learning

- Focuses on Practical Learning
- Focuses on application of knowledge acquired
- Focuses on skills development, academic achievement and nurturing values
- Focuses on what the learner is expected to achieve and provision of feedback on learner's progress
- Focuses on Collaboration
- Facilitates smooth transition of all learners
- More emphasis on talent identification and career development
- More parental empowerment and engagement

Parental Engagement in CBC

- Provide tender, loving care to boost your child's emotional safety and a sense of belonging.
- Protect your child from physical and emotional harm.
- Provide basic necessities.
- Monitor your child's growth and development and also identify any signs of disability for early intervention.
- Spend quality time with the child.
- Identify your child's natural talents and abilities, and work with the teachers to nurture them.

- Instill and nurture moral values.
- Teach and guide children to make the right choices and make them aware of consequences.
- Engage in peaceful and prompt resolution of conflicts that may arise.
- Discipline the child.

- Teach and model proper use of resources.
- Instill a sense of responsibility by ensuring children participate in age appropriate chores.
- Have open conversations with your child.

- Help in enhancing learner achievements.
- Engage with the teacher.
- Take part in school activities.
- Support education activities.
- Understand the school calendar.
- Be a good role model.

CLUBS

A heartfelt thank you to our learners, club patrons, head teachers and clubs facilitators for making our clubs vibrant and engaging.

Cheers to Zumba, Chess, Skating and Cooking clubs for topping the list this term.

AWESOME PARENTS...

A special shout out to all Busy Bee Parents. Thank you for your continued support, love and encouragement. You are important and valuable.

Thank you to all of you who attended the Parents CBC forum on Saturday. We are encouraged and look forward to working with you in giving our children the very best of CBC.
